

Make a Difference

Subject: ELA, Social Studies

Grade Level: K-2

Concept: Entrepreneurial Process

Method: Design Thinking

OVERVIEW

Students will design and take part in a community service event. This project provides an opportunity for young students to take on the role of change agent and begin to explore how they can meet their civic responsibilities. As they work on this project, students explore potential roles in their community, as well as civic virtues.

Read Full Lesson

Connection to Entrepreneurship: Students will design and take part in a community service event.

